VERY REV. WILLIAM J. MURPHY, S.J.

Now that the brightness of V-E Day has broken through the overcast, it is permissible to reopen, if only for a day, the Temple of Janus and to look backward and forward.

With the outbreak of war come the hurried preparation of student for military service though the Reserve Programs and the introduction of a war-time schedule. Six months later the campus was militarized for the ASTP. Another ten months and the Army program was history and the student body had dropped almost eighty-five percent. Then commenced the reorganization of schedules, courses, faculty and the troubled financing of a wartime college. Through the enduring patience of the remaining faculty members and the generous support of the Alumni and friends, the educational structure of the college and the schools had been maintained essentially unimpaired.

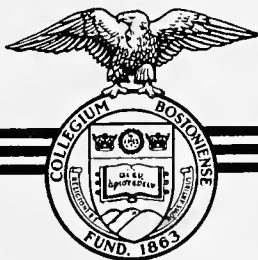

It would be a blessed thing, if we sit back now and rest. But the tasks that lie ahead are no less arduous and no less imperative than those which have been completed. We must reorder all that has been thrown out of joint. The widely scattered faculties, almost forty percent reduced, must be reassembled. Schedules and curricula must be rebuilt in the light of our war experience and the outlines of the coming world order. The complicated task of educating the returning veterans — complicated but joyful, too — must be adjusted to the pattern of a peacetime college.

No less insistent, even at the present moment, is the need of inaugurating a plan for the postwar development of the College. In the near future I hope to bring before the Alumni the ideal panorama of the College as it could be twenty-five years hence. But to actuate these plans we shall need the alert and constant assistance of all of you. We shall call upon you to cooperate with the faculty in a wide variety of activities. We shall have to call upon you, also, for financial cooperation.

For the present I am asking the Alumni to continue their loyal interest in the War Fund. We shall need funds for the restoration of the faculty, which cannot wait on the return of a normal student body. We shall need funds to provide for maintenance, deferred during these years. We shall need funds to widen our post-war orbit.

Each year every Alumnus makes some donation to charity. The tax laws encourage us to do this. Let your College be on your permanent charity list. If the College were to receive even a small annual contribution from each alumnus, it could, without delay enter upon its building program. Within a few weeks you will receive a formal request for donations. I am confident of your answer.

-E DAY

V.-E Day was observed quietly at the heights. Solemn Benediction was celebrated at noon by Very Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., assisted by Deans Stephen A. Mulcahy, S.J., and James J. Kelly, S.J.

1879-1915 DINNER

The annual dinner for members of the classes from 1879 to 1915 took place at the Hotel Kenmore, Tuesday, May 22. Chairman of the evening was Rev. Patrick J. ✚ Rev. John S. Keating, S.J., '93, librarian of the College since 1935, died March 20.

Born in Charlestown, he left B. C. to enter the Society of Jesus in 1890, and was ordained in 1902.

Within the sanctuary were Very Rev. John J. McEleney, S.J., Provincial of the New England Province, Very Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., Monsignors Finn and Furlong, and Rev. James J. Murphy, '89.

Because it is impossible to maintain correct military and naval addresses, the ALUMNI NEWS is sent to the home address of an alumnus in the service with the expectation that it will be forwarded. Letters received in recent months reveal that this is not being done. If you are a relative, just place a three cent stamp on the envelope after re-addressing it. Do not seal envelope. If you prefer to seal it, you must pay the rates for first class mail.

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT

In May there were 413 students at the Heights compared to 250 at the same time last year. 190 High School boys took the entrance examination last month and the successful candidates will enter the College in June or September. Another examination will take place in the Fall for those desiring to enter in September.

Due to the accelerated program, after the Class of 1945 II graduates on June 13th, there will be one Senior, two Junior, two Sophomore and two Freshman classes.

THE HEIGHTS

Twenty-five years ago the College publication, the Heights, came into existence through the initiative of the members of the Class of 1920. Previous to that time, the only publication was the Stylus. Since its beginning, the Heights has been published weekly for the student body. Because of conditions due to the war the last three years, even the editors wondered whether it could be published with any regularity.

The 1920 Sub-Turri states:

"The first edition came out November 1920. Its success was assured from its first appearance. The students thereafter looked forward eagerly to the arrival of each issue, and to the credit of the Staff let it be said that the paper never was late. In its ever-modest manner, outlined its aim and policy in its first number. The Heights 'expected to be the soldering iron that will weld us together, link for link, in such a powerful chain of Spirit that a bigger and better Boston College would be the result.' sought, therefore, to instill College Spirit; has accomplished its end. From its modest beginning as a four-page weekly, it has risen now to a six-page edition, each page now bearing three times the size of the original sheet.

"John D. Ring, '20, editor-in-chief, is deserving of great praise for his clever management of the Heights. Edmund Higgins, '20, and Elias Shamon, '20, as associate editors, rendered valuable assistance and timely counsel at all the meetings. James Brawley, '20, contributed more of his famous cartoons, thus giving the paper much of its originality. The rest of the Staff was made up of Jack Donahue, '21, Charles McCarthy, '22, Harold Sullivan, '21, and Walter Hyland, '22, contributing editors, Robert Walsh, '22, artist, Thomas Mahan, '22, advertising manager and James Donahue, '21, circulating manager. Rev. M. Peter V. Masterson, faculty moderator, is to be congratulated for his splendid aid and appropriate suggestions in the publication and improvement of the paper."

BISHOP KELLEHER

Boston American

Most Reverend Louis F. Kelleher, D.D., 1910, was appointed in May by the Pope as Titular Bishop of Thene and Auxiliary to Archbishop Cushing, 1917. He will be consecrated Bishop on June 8 at the Cathedral by Archbishop Cushing, assisted by Bishop Charles J. Buddy of San Diego and Bishop Edward F. Ryan, 1901, of Burlington, Vermont. Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York will preach the sermon.

Bishop Kelleher is the sixth Auxiliary Bishop to be appointed to the Boston diocese. Two of his predecessors were Alumni, the late Bishop Joseph C. Anderson, 1887, and the present Archbishop.

After graduation from the College he studied for the priesthood in Rome where he was ordained April 3, 1915, by His Eminence, Basilio Cardinal Pompili, Vicar of His Holiness, Benedict XV. Returning to this country he served as curate at the Blessed Sacrament Church in Quincy, and St. Thomas Aquinas' Church, Jamaica Plain, until he was appointed to the faculty of St. John's Seminary as professor of Dogmatic Theology. Seventeen years later in 1935 he was made Pastor of St. John's Church, Canton. In 1940 he became Pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Somerville, where he will continue to remain.

At College Bishop Kelleher excelled as a student and an orator. He was valedictorian of his class, choosing as his topic, "The Catholic College and Social Works." The Stylus

(April, 1910) states in a review of the debate between B. C. and Georgetown that "Mr. Kelleher, the last man for Boston quickly walked to the front of the stage, clear-headed, earnest, convincing, vibrating with humanity, he carried his great audience with him from the first sentence to the last."

The Stylus reveals he was the Alumni Editor of it in his senior year. The January, 1908, issue, has a speech delivered by him at a Mass Meeting. The Alumni of that period will remember this meeting was held for the purpose of beginning the drive to collect funds for the erection of the Administration Building. In addition to acting as Alumni Editor, Bishop Kelleher contributed prose and poetry to the Stylus.

Within the past year Boston College has been honored three times. In addition to the consecration of Bishop Kelleher this month, Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing became Archbishop of Boston last November, and Most Rev. Edward F. Ryan became Bishop of Burlington, Vermont.

A copy of the following letter was received from the family of Lieutenant (jg) Robert J. Glennon, '34.

U.S.S. PITTSBURGH

27 February 1945

An Open Letter to Lieutenant (jg) Glennon:

We, the Catholic members of the U.S.S. Pittsburgh, are indeed indebted to you for the exhilarating and splendid manner in which you conduct the Catholic services.

At each service you appear before the assembly clean shaved, dignified, and sincere in your endeavor to convey the message of the gospel; the inspiring interpretations are within the scope of everyone; your every gesture is one of confidence as you address the assembly.

We fully realize this is an activity beyond and above your regular line of duty. Many of your leisure hours are devoted to the preparation of our service.

Mr. Glennon, your name is frequently mentioned in our letters to the folks at home and also spoken with kindness about the ship. In these trying times we acknowledge the value of our religion.

Our only desire is that God will look with favor upon you and give you additional strength to carry on in this hour of need.

Our unceasing gratitude is humbly expressed, we sincerely thank you.

May God bless you.

SAN FRANCISCO CONFERENCE

By FRANCIS E. LOW, S.J.

✿ Since this article is dated May the fourth, and the United Nations' Conference is still in a preliminary stage, it is too early to appraise properly its final results. However, certain trends and features already observed, leave the impression that, while some lasting good may come from the deliberations of so representative a group of statesmen, there is little hope that the San Francisco meetings will establish any solid or enduring basis for world peace in our time. The difficulties of such a meeting under present conditions, are almost insuperable.

The most important and puzzling question of the whole Conference seems to have escaped discussion, namely, its own restricted character and strangely limited purpose. We were warned in advance not to expect too much. Its negative phases were emphasized. It was not to be a peace conference, nor a review of reparation terms, nor a settlement of boundary disputes, nor an arbiter of territorial changes or unilateral agreements. The question "why not" to all of these negations seems pertinent. Why should the delegates of the forty-six invited nations have less power to discuss and decide such urgent major issues, than three men representing only three Major Powers, meeting in secrecy at Teheran or Yalta? Why should the decisions of the latter not be revealed and reviewed in open discussion, and, if necessary, corrected or repudiated?

It seems futile to make plans to prevent or oppose future aggression or injustice on the part of some nation five or ten years hence, and take no measures to prevent gross violations of both as they exist at present.

For instance. The course and progress of Soviet aggression and injustice in Europe is a real threat to present and future world peace and security. The forced incorporation of the helpless Baltic nations by the U.S.S.R., the Soviet intrigue and puppet governments established in several of the Balkan countries, the violation of Polish rights and independence in spite of solemn pledges made by Stalin, are all extremely vital and vexing problems which are opposed to the principles of the Atlantic Charter. None of these is formally subject to discussion in the present meetings. Recently, with the Conference in session, Stalin has setup unilaterally, a provisional government in liberated Austria and concluded a unilateral twenty-year friendship agreement with his own puppet government in Warsaw.

The longer we delay action on these major issues, the more difficult it will be to adjust them equitably. Failure to do so will inevitably result in another war. Time will only serve to help Stalin consolidate his ill-gotten gains. Meanwhile millions of patriotic men and women in Europe are living in actual or virtual slavery under the malign aegis of the hammer and the sickle. Thus far Molotov's strategy has been highly successful in spite of some unimportant minor set-backs. This strategy was first to discredit and minimize the present Conference then to make sure that it would take no drastic measures to stop the onward march of the Soviet forces in Europe and elsewhere. Up to date nothing has occurred in San Francisco to cause Stalin or Molotov any real concern.

It may be too much to hope that the United Nations' Conference will insure any Utopian future for a war-torn world. But there are some vaguely hopeful signs. A few rays of light penetrate the dark shadows that brood over California's conference halls. The numerous defects and errors of former conferences, Teheran, Dumbarton Oaks and Yalta, have been brought into clearer focus and more widely discussed in the press and by the American public. Mr. Truman and the United States delegate have insisted that International Justice become the cornerstone in the plans for world security and that the basic principles of the Atlantic Charter should be honored and observed by all the nations. Commander Stassen recently proposed nine practical amendments to the Dumbarton Charter, all of them practical and necessary. They must be adopted and applied universally if future peace and present injustice are to be faced realistically.

JOHN S. KEOHANE

12 Acacia Avenue, Chestnut Hill

 We are happy to learn that John Hogan is recovering from a recent indisposition. He is anxiously inquiring about the next get-together of the Class which is a good sign. John, Jr., is an instructor with the Combat Engineers, Camp Gruber, Oklahoma.

Bill O'Sullivan's boys are active and widespread these days. John is with the 69th Division of the First Army now fighting in Germany. Bill, Jr., of the Army Air Corps, is somewhere in China. Francis is serving with the Navy and is at present in San Diego, California.

Ed Sullivan of Salem Teachers College delivered a masterful address recently before the men of the Cathedral Parish at Manchester, N. H., at the first public function attended by His Excellency, Most Reverend Matthew F. Brady, D.D. Fred Doyle reports good news from his boys. Ensign Fred, Jr., is on a carrier somewhere in the Pacific. Charles is also in the Navy, assigned to a cruiser in the Pacific.

Thomas Swan Keohane fought with the Fifth Division Marines throughout the battle of Iwo Jima. They have now left the island for a rest.

PHILIP J. BOND

18 Houston Street, West Roxbury

 The class of 1915 is now celebrating its thirtieth anniversary of graduation.

The Class numbered 101 when the freshman year opened in the James Street building in 1911. Of this group 58 went through to graduation. Fourteen left at the end of the freshman or sophomore year to study for the priesthood; three to become Jesuits and one a Redemptarist. Following graduation, twelve more entered the seminary, making a total of twenty-six who entered the priesthood, including one more Redemptarist. Fifteen in all are now pastors. Seven studied medicine, including one 'ex' man. Dr. John L. Welch is practising in Gavan, Saskatchewan, Canada. Six are lawyers. Sixteen entered the teaching profession. The remainder engaged in various business enterprises. Sixty-one of the sixty-eight graduates are living.

The class has last contact with only six of its living members.

Father Stephen F. Moron is now senior curate in St. Mary's Parish, North Plymouth.

The sympathy of the class is extended to Rev. Joseph Norton in the death of his father in April; and the family of Stephen J. Harrington, who died recently.

1916

JAMES L. O'BRIEN

41 Pondred Circle, Jamaica Plain

 Jim Duffy has been made Asst. Director of Physical Education for the City of Boston. He will have charge of the Physical Education Program in the intermediate schools.

Congratulations to our new pastors:

Fr. Lea Sullivan, St. Julia's Church, Weston;

Fr. Lyman Merrill, Our Lady of Sorrows, Sharon;

Fr. John I. O'Connor, St. John's Church, East Bridgewater.

Fr. Daniel J. Donovan is now located at 49 Franklin St., where he will have charge of Holy Name activities.

Fr. Charles D. McInnis has been appointed State Chaplain, C.D.A.

On Feb. 21, 1945, Gov. Tobin appointed Dr. Roy J. Heffernan as a trustee of Mass. General Hospital. The Mass. General couldn't get anyone better qualified.

Kindly remember in your prayers the father and mother of Leo Gallagher, and the father of Fr. Gerald Fitzgerald.

On April 20, 1945, I realized what a small world we live in when children of the five following classmates were confirmed by Archbishop Cushing: Jerry Shea, Joe Scalponeti, Pat Donovan, Roy Heffernan and your correspondent.

The following letter was received in March from Mrs. Joseph A. McOwen, widow of our late classmate, Joseph McOwen:

Dear Mr. O'Brien:—

I hope you will excuse my delay in answering your kind letter upon hearing of Joe's death. I want you to know that I appreciate it greatly. Please extend to the class of 1916 my heartfelt thanks for enrolling him as a member of "Our Lady's Memorial Society."

I know that next to his family, Joe loved Boston College best, and especially the class of 1916. One of the last things Joe did a few days before he died was to hang up all his Boston College pictures.

It was a great comfort to have Jack Atkinson and Joe Scalponeti here with us at such a time.

The children join me in offering our sincerest thanks and appreciation to B. C., 1916.

Most sincerely,

Mrs. Joseph A. McOwen (s)

The Class Retreat was held at Campion Hall, Andover, May 4th-6th.

THOMAS D. CRAVEN

42 Mellen Street, Darchester

 Dr. Tom Bray died suddenly at his home in Halliston on April 1st. He had never fully recovered from an attack of pneumonia which he had four years ago. Tom prepared for medicine at Harvard and Georgetown from which he was graduated in 1921. His internship was spent at the Emergency Hospital in Washington and at St. Francis Hospital in New York. As an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, he had a tremendous practice in Worcester, as well as giving his services to St. Vincent's Hospital and several others in Worcester County. His passing is mourned by all who knew him because Tom had an indefinable charm which made persons comfortable in his presence, and a friendliness that was consoling. At his funeral services were Fr. John Connolly, Fr. Anthony Laverty, John Mahoney and Ed McCabe. To his widow, three sons and daughters we extend our most sincere sympathy. May his soul rest in peace.

Fr. Frank Flaherty has been a chaplain with the Marine Corps for the past two years. Part of this time he has been in the Pacific. Recently he has been in Boston regaining his strength to return to duty with the "leathernecks".

Fr. Joe Keenan, chaplain in the Navy, was recently in Boston with his transport. While he was here he was interviewed by a local newspaper, which carried a very interesting article in which Fr. Keenan expressed his opinions as to the influence of war experiences upon the religious life and the faith of the men.

Les Shea is practicing law in Boston. He managed to get away from his office in the Park Sq. Bldg. long enough to enjoy a short stay in Florida.

Judge Nap Vigeant of the Chicopee Dist. Court, who also has offices in Springfield and Chicopee, was a sojourner in the Southland during a part of March and April.

Fr. Joe Merrick, S.J., who has been at Baghdad College for many years, is now a chaplain at the Abadan Air Base. In spite of his absence from this country for so many years, he carries on correspondence with members of his class, many of whom he has not seen since he entered St. Andrew's.

Fr. Tony Laverty has been active in the drive which is under way at the Convent of the Cenacle to raise funds for a new wing and chapel. Recently his brother John was stricken suddenly and died. We extend the sympathy of the class to Fr. Laverty and to the members of his brother's family.

The sympathy of the class is extended to Robert B. Fitzgerald on the death of his father, Michael T., former superintendent of schools in Cambridge.

JOHN M. O'LOUGHLIN
631 Fellsway, Medford

Sympathy of the Class is extended to J. Paul Lynch in the death of his father on March 24. R.I.P.

The current issue of "Vital Speeches" contains an address delivered by Col. Warren Clear before the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

John Sargent, president of the N. Y. B. C. Club, is keeping things moving in high gear. Jack is a construction engineer for the N. Y. Tel. & Tel.

Ed Sullivan and Warren Swett each has a son graduating this year from Boston Latin School, or, as Charlie Fitz says, "good old B.L.S."

Comdr. Dan Harkins was a port officer in England prior to the Normandy invasion, and since then has been travelling back and forth between English and continental ports. Mrs. Harkins and Dan, Jr., live in Douglaston, L. I.

Benny Murray's successful career of nearly a quarter of a century as coach was featured recently in Bob Cayne's weekly, "The Spotlight". Heartly congratulations to J. Paul Lynch who was married on Feb. 3 to Miss Gertrude F. Sullivan of Wollastan, former Boston school teacher. The Lynchs are at home in Beechhurst, L. I. If you are in the neighborhood, drop in. It is so unsatisfactory eating in restaurants!

Mr. and Mrs. Myles Connolly of Los Angeles made their annual visit to New York in the late winter. Myles wrote the story for the picture "Music for Millions." The former Stylus editor is now the father of five children.

Fr. Vincent Kennally, S.J., Superior of the Sacred Heart Novitiate, Rizal, Philippines, was among the American priests liberated by the Rangers.

Jim Rooney is on leave of absence from the New York Tunnel Authority and is now in Pittsburgh where he is an engineer in construction work.

It is hoped that the "Scrambled Eggs Trio", Pike, Cashin, and Harkins, will be able to come ashore for Alumni Day. Arrangements have been made to dock their boats at Pier 4, Reservoir Lake. Alumni Day? Monday, June 11. See you?

Father Edward V. Stanford, after 12 years as president of Villanova is now Rector of Augustinian College, Washington, D. C. Fr. Stanford is also Secretary of the American Council on Education and a member of the Navy Advisory Educational Council. His article, "The Case Against Peacetime Censorship", which appeared in a recent issue of "School and Society" has already been recognized as an outstanding contribution to this controversial subject.

FRANCIS D. SHEA

56 Richwood Street, West Roxbury

Major Henry F. Barry is in command of an aera squadron in Burma. He has been at this station since December, 1944. He has flown the "Hump" many times. He expects to move shortly, probably further north in China.

Fred Shea, who is manager of District 1 of the Veterans' Bureau, recently addressed the meeting of the Particular Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Fred is an expert on all veterans' legislation, especially the "G. I. Bill of Rights". This is a tip to anyone who is looking for a good speaker on an important topic. The second annual retreat of the Class at Campian Hall, North Andover, has been definitely arranged for June 8 to 10. A notice will be sent to each member of the Class but you can save the secretary work by making your reservation on the basis of this notice. The secretary's address is at the top of this column. Ask those who made the retreat last year whether you can afford to miss this one.

J. ROBERT BRAWLEY

33 Pomfret Street, West Roxbury

dear John:

As this is the silver jubilee year of the "forty thieves" as Fr. Mccluskey of sainted memory named us so many years ago when Jim McInerney of Braintree couldn't get into class as soon as John Danohue of Salem could and the war we talked about was the battle of the barracks of Chestnut Hill and not the global conflagration at today I want to tell the gang that we're starting off our anniversary with a retreat at Campian Hall from Friday June 8 to Sunday June 10 and on Alumni Day which is June 11 we'll gather in the old senior room which today is just a number so instead of telling the boys that number you gave me just say its the same old room where Art Hinchey used to take attendance and through the windows of which the forty thieves used to pass the geological specimens at the birds in the trees outside and genial Eddie Higgins of Schrafft's is the chairman of the week activities and we're expecting all the old gang to dust off their wheel chairs and crutches and show up and in view of the importance of the affair the "forty thieves" extend a cordial invitation to the "forty students" and the "forty men who went to college" to join in so all the class may get together once again and as Major Gus Horgan left the Italian front and came home to be with us the class officers have decided to reward the member coming from the furthest distance and so whoever wins that distinction (?) will be allowed to write these class notes in the future and restore the class to that dignified position its old age calls for. I thank you, Bob Brawley.

NATHANIEL J. HASENFUS

15 Kirk Street, West Roxbury

 Most of the class news this month comes from the Armed Services . . . Latest letters from Frank Daly reveal that he is now Major Francis X. Daly and that he is stationed in Paris. Frankie has always been a real honor to the Class.

Lt. George L. McKim was a visitor in Boston in April. George has been transferred from the Prisoner of War Camp in Cumberland, Md. to a new assignment in the Reception Center of the Camp.

Capt. Ralph Shea, discharged from the service, has returned to civilian life with his old concern, Standard Brands.

A picture from the New York Times, sent me by Bob Walsh, shows Col. Timothy McInerney as the main speaker at the 24th annual meeting of the New York State Publisher's Association at the Hotel Commodore in N. Y. Tim was quoted at great length in the Times, where he was hailed as a member of Gen'l Eisenhower's staff and as a man of great vision. Tim's boy, by the way, the first son of '22 to enroll at B. C., but who withdrew to enter the Air Corps, has been released from the service and will presumably return to the Heights.

Victory Program by Commissioner Long (father of Father Long). Congratulations to Fred Maran on his 8th annual visit to New York on the occasion of his 18th wedding anniversary. Freddy has a fine family of four girls and two boys, one a football player at B.C.H., named for that grand gentleman, Fr. Stephen Moron '15. By the way, the Hasenfus family have now caught up with the Morans, for with the birth of Marie Louise on March 27, the count now stands four boys and two girls.

William J. Lanogan now holds life tenure in office as Waltham City Clerk, after having passed a qualifying examination with an exceptionally high mark. He previously held the office under three-year terms voted by the City Council since July 1, 1939.

Rev. Walter F. Hyland, S.J., interned by the Japs in Los Banos prison camp in the Philippines, was liberated by American forces.

Sympathy of the class is extended to John Hontz, whose father passed away in April; and to John Norton in the death of his father in April.

FRANCIS L. FORD

26 Ellison Avenue, Dorchester

 A testimonial dinner was given by classmates to Lieut. Owen A. Gallogher upon his return to civil life after his long service in the Pacific theatre with the Navy. The affair was held on Monday, February 12, at the Parker House, and over twenty members were in attendance. Owen's story of his experiences was the highlight of the evening and was thoroughly enjoyed by the gathering. There being sufficient bagmen present, an election of officers was held. Our new president is Cece McGoldrick; vice presidents, John Flavin and Frank Hickey; secretary, Gerald Caughlin; treasurer, Ed. Dullea; and a new office created, that of Scriptor; which is what I am doing now. Tony Comerford was placed in charge of the Laetare Sunday Communion breakfast. Ed. Garrity was made executive chairman. It is planned in the fall to have a dinner dance, the first of such affairs attempted by the class. Those who attended were Father Matthew Hale, S.J.; Father Norbert McInnis; Dr. Phil McGovern; Frank Hickey; Joe Lee; Beoven McGady; Bill Nolan; John Flavin; Harry Mulowney; Ed. Garrity; Tony Comerford; Al Ripley; Joe Crane; Gerry Caughlin; John Curtin; Bill Argy; Ed Dullea; Ben Daly; Jim McLaughlin; and Frank Ford.

Laetore Sunday, March 11, 1945. Now look in your "Sub Turri" on Page 238, and you will find that in 1923 we met on the very same day date. Twenty members of the class made the traditional journey to the Heights this year. After Mass in the chapel, celebrated by Fr. Paul Mo-Manus, S.J., we adjourned to have breakfast in the Chalet. Tony Comerford was chairman and did a grand job. A letter from Al Bedard in New York informed us about many of our classmates. Plans were made for a dinner dance. Those present were: Tom Eccles, Ed. Dullea, Dan Gallagher (who was our invited guest and speaker, and who thrilled us as usual.)

Ed Garrity, Tony Comerford, Len Morrissey, Cece McGoldrick, Gitch Gormley, Frank Hickey, Harry Mul-lowney, Walter Dimmock, Joe Sweeney, Gerry Coughlin, Connie O'Connell, George Olesen, Joe Crane, Bill Dolan, John Flavin, Owen Gallagher, Joe Comber, and Frank Ford. Just before the meeting broke up, Father Daniel Lynch, S.J., our former professor, dropped in, with what we thought, was a bill in his hand for previous services, but it was a false alarm, and he pleased us greatly with his many quips and pleasantries. The Communion breakfast was one of the pleasantest and most spirited of our two decade gatherings.

Ed Garrity got away again this year — to Pinehurst, N. C., just for a spot of golf.

Walter Mayo's son, the Junior, previously reported missing in action in the European theatre, has been recorded as a prisoner of war in southern Germany. Don't worry, Junior, it won't be long now!

Dr. Leo Desmond at latest reports was heading for the Philippines. He has seen long service in the Pacific. Technical Sgt. Frank K. Dailey is still in France. He wrote me recently of his observance of Laetare Sunday and thought of the gathering on the Heights on that occasion. Frank never forgets. One year ago we printed his letter in toto in the Alumni News, and it was occasioned by the annual return of Laetare Sunday. Next year, Frank, be with us.

Lt. Owen Gallagher, aide to Governor Tabin, accompanied His Excellency to the White House for the funeral services of our late and beloved President, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Lieutenant Commander Gaynor A.

Wellings of the Navy was home recently on a furlough. He visited Cece McGoldrick.

Dr. Edward J. Burke would have been present at Owen Gallagher's testimonial but for the fact that on that very evening he was delivering a lecture before a forum of dentists.

Louis Tracy is now a district supervisor for the Massachusetts Department of Education, specializing in Rehabilitation work. He works out of Springfield and his home address is 55 Federal Street, Agawam, Mass.

Al Ripley can now be found at the Bowdoin Square headquarters of the New England Telephone Co. Just another promotion says Al.

Myles T. McSweeney was recently appointed night city editor of the Boston Daily Record.

Gerry Coughlin was chairman of the Parish Reunion of St. Gregory's Church in Darchester. It was a tremendous success, naturally.

Al Bedard's penmanship is worse than that of Shakespeare, but, Deo valente, I will try to decipher what he has written about our New York classmates. Joe Moriarty is still in the office of the general counsel for the Brooklyn-Manhattan section of the New York city subway system. Joe has two children, a boy and a girl.

Bill C. MacDonald is in the purchasing department of an air line, and doing very well. Captain Larry McCarthy of the Navy had a furlough recently and with Captain Bart Hogan was entertained at the Bedard's. Larry was guest of honor at a B. C. Club gathering and what a fine talker he turned out to be, according to Al. Lieut. Commander Henry McInerny, '21, was toastmaster at the affair. By the way, at this writing, Larry and Bart were rooming together. What a team! Bath, however, were scheduled to depart on serious business in the immediate future. Jack Lyons is price executive of the Restaurant and Hotel section of the O.P.A. in Washington. He and his wife, Marian, were recent visitors to New York. Commander Joe Delaney, in a letter to Al, dated Feb. 26, writes as follows: "The B. C. pennant has a prominent place in my quarters. As you must surmise, things are very active and busy for us out here. Something doing all the time. When you receive this letter, I'll be starting my 8th month of this foreign duty tour." The letter came from the Marianos. Jiggs Kelleher is still around New York. Saw Al recently.

Jack Heaphy, coach of Dedham High School and an excellent one, was injured at baseball practice recently when one of his players lost control of his bat which struck Jack on the side of the face. It came very close to being a mighty serious injury.

ANTHONY E. LE BLANC

45 Maynard Street, Arlington

On Sunday, April 29th, the Class held its annual Communion Breakfast at the Hotel Sheraton. The Moss was said at the Heights by Rev. Thomas F. Walsh, who is chaplain at Mt. St. Joseph's Academy, Brighton. Twenty-five of the "old faithful" were present and were pleasantly surprised by the visit of His Excellency, Archbishop Cushing, who was attending another Communion Breakfast at the hotel. His Excellency enlightened us with a brief but timely message regarding our duties as alumni of a Catholic College. Dr. Thomas H. D. Mahoney, Professor of History at Holy Cross and Smith Colleges, delivered a very interesting talk on the historical background of Russia and Japan in the present war. The Committee in charge was—Edmond J. Murphy, Chairman, John Holbrow, John Monahan, Sylvester Connolly, and Dr. Walter Carroll. "Jim" Grady has recently become associated with Wallace Clark & Company, New York consulting management engineers and is expecting to go to South America for his organization. Best of luck, Jim!

"Nick" Corbett is now associated with the White Motor Co., so if you can get the necessary priorities, and need a truck, see Nick.

Lt. "Harry" A. Follen, USNR, is now a patient at the Chelsea Naval Hospital.

"Jim" Locke has recently received his discharge from the Army and is soon to resume his teaching position. Capt. Frank Bransfield is seeing plenty of action as a chaplain with the Army in Germany. According to latest reports he is in good health. The group of eligible bachelors in '24 is getting smaller. Dr. Frank J. Mulligan was married to the former Mary L. Pierce on Dec. 26, 1944, and it is rumored that Major J. Burke

Mullivan, AAC, is now a benedict.

St. Jim Doherty, USNR, was recently seen around town enjoying a leave from his duties with the Navy.

James Delaney has been discharged from the USMC and is now working for a Boston newspaper.

St. Philip Cleary, USNR, has returned to his base in Maryland, after having been home on leave.

Received a card from "Bab" Band announcing the "Sixth Band Issue" on Jan. 1, 1945. "Boy-O-Bay, What a Band." Bob states that he is living in Evanston, Illinois, and is a Divisional Manager for Montgomery-Ward Company.

Don't forget boys, I'm depending on you to keep this column going. I need cooperation, so please send in any news you hear concerning our classmates (marriages, births, changes in position, promotions in service, etc.)

Thomas L. Kelleher, promoted from staff to technical sergeant recently, has been serving as assistant chief clerk in the Army Finance Office at New Caledonia. He completed basic training in this work in December, 1943, and has since been stationed in New Caledonia.

WILLIAM ARTHUR REILLY

4 Arborway, Jamaica Plain

These will be the last printed comments before our meeting for Re-reat at Campion Hall on the weekend of June 8th-10th, or Alumni Day, June 11th. Don't make it necessary for classmates to keep calling you to attend these affairs. Enroll now, if you have not already done so, among those who have promised to be on hand for our 20th anniversary activities.

There have been very few returns at the time of this writing as contributions to the Class Gift Fund. "He who gives promptly gives twice." Get your contribution in soon, and the expense of the June activities will not seem so high. While contributions received after June will be just as good as those received before, they will not help to make our total as high as we would like to have it on Alumni Day. Send all contributions directly to Boston College. The amount is up to you in accordance with your means and generosity. Frank Haurihan has returned from the Armed Services and is again located at Police Headquarters, Boston.

WILLIAM J. CUNNINGHAM

40 Tennyson Street, West Roxbury

The annual dinner of the Class of 1926 was held Feb. 10th at the Hotel Kenmore with a good representation on hand to enjoy every minute of the evening. Dr. Arthur Gorman presided, with Fr. David Dunigan, S.J. and Fr. Martin Harney, S.J., as the speakers. At the dinner we unveiled plenty of news about our classmates:

Connie Moynihan is Reg'l Enforcement Attorney for OPA in New England.

Ed Mullawney is with the Reg'l OPA's Legal Division.

Chet Arnold, father of two boys and a girl, related some of his activities as headmaster of Salem High. We're all very indebted to John Dooley. Though busy with his teaching, his photographic work, and the handling of our successful endowment plan, he still finds time to drop a line regularly, and has given your correspondent a number of items recently. In March, 1945 issue of Maryknoll, the publication of the Order, is a grand little story by Fr. Tom Quirk, M.M. Fr. Tom is pastor of the mission church of Erh Pa Tan in Manchuria. Mr. Dooley forwarded that one; also a copy of a six-page letter written by Sgt. Leo O'Heorn to a friend, based on an excerpt from Lincoln's Gettysburg address. It is a most scholarly piece of work, and a credit to Leo, who, at present, is in England. Apparently his outfit also thought so, since it had the letter publicized.

Frankie Riha, father of three children, is an accountant with Donnelly Advertising.

Sharon's Fred Curley is still running his flower shop in the University Club Bldg. in Boston.

George O'Brien is with the State Department of Vocational Rehabilitation. Bill Cunningham has encountered him on several occasions, while on his new assignment with the Treasury Department, pushing War Bond sales.

It was nice to see Dick Finn again. He's with Metropolitan Life, Roslindale Office, and lives in West Roxbury.

Tom Geagan covers the Worcester Territory for General Accident Insurance Co., making good use of his law degree.

Jim Collins is teaching at Revere High, and Jahn Keating of Lynn enjoyed Dr. Arthur Gorman's toastmastership at the dinner. Dr. Harry Campbell is practising his dentistry in W. Medford, and is the very proud dad of five boys and a girl. Quite a record!

Joe O'Connell is attorney for Mass. Bonding, covering Worcester County. Fr. David Dunigan, S.J., is currently writing a history of the College.

Angus MacNeil is practising law on Chauncy Street. Rumar has it that Murray Brown is a member of the State Guard, and that Tam Walsh is with U.S.E.S. in Portland, Me.

Bill Hogerty of South Boston is with Lever Bros.

Col. George Robertie is with Chemical Warfare and Fr. Paul Rock is a lieutenant in the Army Chaplain Corps.

Bob Daley and his family of three boys got together with your correspondent's family of three boys and a daughter to visit a mutual friend recently. Bob is just over grippe and pneumonia. Just for a change in subject — We all enjoyed our 15-year outing of several years ago so much that Pres. Gorman has appointed a committee headed by Joe Beecher and Fred Curley to make preparations for our 20th anniversary outing.

Jahnnie Miskella, the typewriter specialist, is a T/Sgt. in the army.

Bill Dunn is Credit Mgr. of the Earnshaw Knitting Mills in Newton.

Joe Driscoll is with the Post Office Dept. in Newton.

Owen Murphy is with the Bryant Chuck and Grinder Company, lives in Claremont, N. H. and gets to Boston one day a week usually.

Jim Hickey is now with the Internal Revenue in Springfield.

Dave Lawlor still has a fine sense of humor. A commercial photographer at 25 Huntington Ave., Boston, Dave is a correspondent for Radio Selling & Television Retailing. Dave will "correspond" with anyone, if it concerns photography.

J. Murray Regan, of the "Milton" Regans, is still with Ryerson Steel, covering Southeast New England. Murray has four boys.

Lawyer Joe Beecher, father of one boy, is now living in Canton.

Class members received Treasurer Dooley's excellent report on payments to March 1, 1945 from Jan 1, 1944. It's good to see how close we are to realization on the insurance policies for the College. Get that check in to Johnny, 43 Raslin St., Dorchester, and do it now! Make his job easier by prompt action. A $5.00 bill can certainly be spared.

Imagine only five more years to go!

Lt. Henry F. Fairbanks is now at Corpus Christi, Texas, and Lt. Jimmy Nagle, AAC, is at Headquarters, Fort George Wright, Washington.

Lt. Charles D. O'Malley, USA, married the former Mary Louise Drew of Oklahoma early in March. Lt. O'Malley is Executive Officer at a Prisoner of War Camp at Fort Reno, Oklahoma.

FRANCIS X. SULLIVAN

51 Presentation Road, Brighton

☞ After a lapse of a few years '27 held a reunion at the Hotel Lenox, April 18. Considering O.D.T. and O.P.A. restrictions, the turnout was very creditable. Forty-seven members sat down in the Green Room to a turkey dinner, and an evening of spontaneous fun. Howard Buckley, who retired as Class President due to the pressure of business, opened the meeting but turned it over to Francis X. Sullivan who with Joe McKenney helped to organize the dinner. With Howard Buckley retiring as President, and the Class Vice-President, Rev. James Narmille, and the Class Secretary, Tom Coughlan, in the service, the group decided to elect new officers. F. X. Sullivan was elected President; Dan O'Leary, Vice-President; Tom Heffernan, Secretary; and John Toomey, Treasurer.

In attendance were: Rev. Joseph McCall, Rev. Robert Hilton, Rev. Daniel Sullivan, Rev. J. Joseph Ryan, Joseph McKenney, William Ohrenberger, Joseph L. O'Brien, Flavel Ray, Thomas Heffernan, John E. Sullivan, John O. Donovan, Thomas Gallagher, Edmund Dumas, John Higgins, James Walsh, Daniel O'Leary, Francis J. Costigan, John Cavanaugh, Joseph Sheerin, William Cachran, Paul Seymour, James Dougherty, Thomas Goad, John Toomey, Francis X. Sullivan, Francis "Luke" McClaskey, Joseph Ingaldsby, Martin Davis, John Nolan, Walter Waldron, Vincent Carolan, John J. Buckley, William Mornell, Fred Harkins, Fred McDermatt, Vincent O'Connell, Martin Tierney, Dr. John Cicchetti, Thomas O'Keefe, James Cotter, David J. Sullivan, Ed-

Statistics—Present: Four priests; fifteen teachers; two doctors; four lawyers; two salesmen; two editors; three investigators; one penal commissioner; one manufacturer; one labor conciliator; two directors of physical education; one treasury official; one advertising man; and six single men. Still very eligible, girls, are Bill Marnell, Paul Seymour, Tom Goad, Joe O'Brien, Tom Murphy and John Toomey.

Ed Talbot came in from Fall River, Dr. Cicchetti from Milford and Dave Sullivan from Webster. The round table discussion was most illuminating and amusing. The laurel wreath for speech making went to John E. Sullivan, Ashmont (formerly Beachmont) whose Alger rise from conductor on the Narraw Gauge to telephone official had the room rocking in laughter. Tom Heffernan put in a plug for the Community Fund, of which he is the Chairman of all the districts. Pass him the aspirin, Adolph! Paul Seymour had some interesting comments on the C.I.O., of which he is N. E. representative for the electrical workers. Most of the boys were content to use and say as few words as possible. Jack Buckley, like Mark Twain, said that the report of his death was exaggerated. Why is it that doctors are always being paged? This time it was Dr. Tim Lyons, Jim Cotter had the grayest hair; Bill Cochran and Tom Murphy the fewest hairs, with your correspondent close up in the race. Bill Ohrenberger was his valuable self. Joe McKenney's feat of calling everyone in the room by name when some had not been around for eighteen years was amazing. Joe, by the way, made all the arrangements with the hotel, and did a great job of rounding up many of the boys.

By the way, six months ago this column predicted that Bill Ohrenberger would be Joe's assistant in the Physical Education Department of the City of Boston schools. Early in April Bill got the appointment.

Bill Marnell and Dan Sullivan spoke on raising money for a gift to the college on our 25th anniversary.

Luke McClaskey still pounds the table when he enjoys a joke.

Tom O'Keefe told of his present work on the 7th War Loan Drive. He is an loan from the Boston schools. Prayers were offered for our deceased classmates: John J. Connolly, Richard Doheny, John J. Doherty, John Donnellan, John Fay, Laurence Gregory, Henry Heaps, Leonard Jordan, Francis Lynch, Dr. Frank Merrick, T. Frank Mullen, Frank Murphy, William O'Brien, Joseph Quinn, Henry Tinker, Francis Williams and Rev. Vincent McKean. One of the most impressive moments of the evening was when Fr. Joseph McCall read his latest poem "I Wander" and dedicated it to the memory of Sgt. Henry Tinker, who was killed in action in World War II.

Forty-seven of the class are in the priesthood. Some of our chaplains have made a great name for themselves in the war. They include Revs. Neil Buckley, Michael Dunphy, Joseph Lyons, James Dunford, James Geary, S.J., Arthur McQuaid, George Callahan, Bede Cameron, C.P. and James Normille.

Thirty of our group are in the service, with Col. Leo Keefe and Comdr. Dan MacIsaac the top rankers.

The evening was brought to a fitting close by Fr. Martin Harney, S.J., the main speaker, who told what the college has been going through since the war started and what the prospects are for the future. In nineteen years he hasn't changed a bit. The boys enjoyed his talk immensely.

The next meeting has been set for October 11th. The April meeting was our biggest yet. Let us surpass it in October. Happy vacation to everyone! Don't forget Alumni Day!

CHARLES W. O'BRIEN
1561 Centre Street, Roslindale.

 Feb. 8, 1945, saw the worst blizzard since the Valentine's Day Storm of 1940 and the reunion dinner of the Class of 1933 at the Hotel Lenox. Among the tender memories which we will recall for many a day following the dinner are: Ken Kelley inducting into the A. F. of L. the dolly with the cavity in her caput who came from nobody knows where to sell Maine's Vacationland. . . . Johnny Mockin defending F——— L——— against the charge of being a mealy-mouthed, hypocritical, unmentionable. . . . Frank "Alec Templeton" Earley pounding the ivories unmercifully as accompanist for Dan Dimond and chorus. . . . "Gus" O'Halloran waiting patiently for the operator on that WORL phone in the clockroom. . . . that five-card stud game with Joe Flynn "bumping" on the slightest provocation; Luke Roddy "bumping" without provocation; Frank Connor introducing himself after each hand to the rudderless sailor who drifted in; Justin McCarthy coaching Ray Callen down to Ray's last nickel and then proceeding to take over Ray's seat and win; "Bucky" Warren serving Tim Sullivan a sandwich of whole tomato between two "hunks" of bread; and Bill Ryan, Bob Groney and Bill Hogan quietly raking in the "dough" . . . Eddie Jakmouh looking for that $2.55 . . . that other game played in shirtsleeves by Joe King, Fred Boyle, Walter Murray, Dick McGivern, Bill Shanahan, Jerry Gattorna, Ed Roach, Neil Sullivan, and Bill Regan . . . and then the evening's finale with Ed Roach, Dan Dimond, Jerry Gattorna, Bob Graney, Walter Murray, "Bucky" Warren and your faithful scribe immersed in a six-foot drift on College Road, the walk down the middle of Comm. Ave. and Lake St. to the Murray manse, the thunderous entrance of seven men and one-half ton of snow, the Irish setter pup mistaking said snow for the great outdoors and "Bucky" Warren repairing the error with snow shovel in hand and door flung wide, Anne Murray cooking scrambled eggs at 3 A.M. and actually smiling, Walter displaying his game table to the tune of one broken vase. Ed Roach's rhythmical snoring, and so after a struggle, to sleep.

Had a letter recently from Lt. Jim Connolly, who is Coordinator of Navy Film Distribution in Washington and is attached to Photographic Services in the office of the Secretary of the Navy. Jim writes that congratulations are in order for Lt. John Curley on the birth of his second child, Marilyn Anne.

The balance of the Class Committee in the military service, T/S John Hanrahan, is romping about France and Germany affording the 9th Army the benefit of his linguistic talents. Our deepest sympathy is extended to Capt. Denny Ryan on the death of his mother which occurred while Denny was stationed in England. Also to Pat Duane on the death of his younger brother, William, '38, who was killed in the holocaust of Iwo Jima.

WILLIAM J. FITZSIMONS

40 Court St., Boston 8

✻ Congratulations to those of our Class who have sent in their contributions!

The drive for our Tenth Anniversary Class Gift is progressing but rather slowly. Honestly, it's no fun for the Committee to raise a respectable sum these days to present to the College on Alumni Day. Please do your part at once. Give as much as you can. If you have already contributed once and feel that you can send in a little more, we shall be glad to accept it. Every little bit helps. Kindly make your check or money order payable to John J. Griffin, Treasurer, and mail to William J. Fitzsimons, 40 Court Street, Boston 8, Mass.

From all indications, a representative group of our Class will be making the Retreat at Campion Hall, North Andover on June 8, 9 and 10. Why not drop us a note today so that a reservation can be made for you? What more fitting way to observe our Tenth Anniversary than by "retreating" to Campion Hall just before Alumni Day! We hate to be asking for anything else in this column, but this is the last request for this issue: PLEASE MAIL AT ONCE YOUR INFORMATION POSTAL CARD — filled out completely. If possible, send along a brief autobiography.

Do not forget to notify us of changes of address, promotions in service, changes in your household, occupation, etc.
